

Michel Escaravage

Michel Escaravage "I see coding as the key to innovation, and my passion is to turn vision into reality, one line of code at a time."

My name is Michel Escaravage, and I am an enthusiastic programmer who enjoys endlessly puzzling in search of solutions. I am 28 years old and I am currently working as an Accessibility Engineer at Babbage B.V. in Roosendaal. Through my varied experience in different industries, I have developed unique skills that support me in my work.

For instance, years of following courses such as social skills and aggression training have taught me how to effectively give and receive feedback. Additionally, I have learned de- escalation
